

EPES Mandala Consulting

Tore Rose is a Norwegian economist trained at Harvard Business School. He was a distinguished UN Resident Coordinator and UNDP Resident Representative in Rwanda, Mali and Algeria. He also worked at the OECD Development Centre and the UN Secretariat as well as in the private sector. He has recently been a peace negotiator in Sri Lanka and with the 2004 International Peace Forum in New York.

- 1. Family Name: Rose
- 2. First names: Finn Tore
- 3. Date of birth: 6 August 1943
- 4. Nationality: Norway

5: Education:

Institution and dates	Degree or Diploma obtained
1966 Harvard Business School, USA	M.B.A
1964 Leeds University, UK	B.A. (Hons.) in Economics

6. Language skills: competence on a scale of 1-5 (1 = excellent, 5 = basic)

Language	Reading	Speaking	Writing
English	1	1	1
Norwegian	1	1	1
French	1	1	1

- 7. Membership of professional bodies: Society for International Development
- 8. Other skills: (computer literacy etc) computer literate
- 9. Present position: Independent Consultant
- 10. Years with firm: EPES Mandala was founded in 2004

11. Key qualifications relevant to project:

- Broad international technical experience related to democracy and decentralized democratic governance
- Extensive track record in conflict prevention, crisis management and peace building in Africa and Asia
- Excellent geographical knowledge of ECOWAS countries and their institutions at the highest levels
- Thorough practical knowledge of security sector policy making and the State's relationship with conflict
- Real understanding both of election mechanisms, and of their broader political context

12. professional experience:

Date from-to	Location	Company	Position	Description of tasks and achievements
2003 - 2004	Geneva	War-Torn Societies Project (UN)	Team Leader	Led the UN Peacebuilding Forum process examining reasons for the disconnect between the international community's generally good policies, and problematic on-the-ground performance, when supporting peace building and conflict prevention in post-conflict countries.
2002 - 2003	Sri Lanka	UN, World Bank & ADB	Senior Consultant	Two missions to Sri Lanka on conflict resolution and peace-building, then preparing a Needs Assessment for areas most affected by conflict between the Government and the LTTE (Tamil Tigers). The Needs Assessment was central to the special donor conference for Sri Lanka in Tokyo in June 2003 which raised pledges of $ 4.5 billion.
2000 – 2002	Kigali	UNDP Rwanda	Resident Representative &amp; UN Resident Coordinator	Focus on transition from post-conflict to development; post-genocide reconciliation and all aspects of governance; Retired at own initiative. Grade : Director (D-2)
1995 - 2000	Bamako	UNDP Mali	Resident Representative &amp; UN Resident Coordinator	Focus on poverty and strategies for sustainable human development; governance, decentralization & elections; conflict resolution and peace consolidation ending the Tuareg rebellion in north Mali, including promoting the first 'Flame of Peace' ceremony. Awarded highest distinction: Officier de l'Ordre National du Mali.
1991 - 1994	Algiers	UNDP Algeria	Resident Representative &amp; UN Resident Coordinator	Shifted focus of UNDP's work from dispersed projects to sectoral policy reforms and democratic governance issues. Period of political upheaval and very serious security problems.

1989 - 1991	Hanoi	UNDP Vietnam	Senior Deputy Resident Representative	Focus on support for reorientation of socio-economic policies at a time of fundamental change and opening-up to the outside world. Published first “western” national economic analysis in collaboration with the Government.
1988 - 1989	Oslo	Ministry of Development Cooperation, Oslo.	Senior Advisor Seconded from UNDP	Focus on aid evaluation, and the development of a methodology for decisions on Norwegian funding for multilateral development organizations.
1984 - 1987	Paris	Development Centre of OECD (Organisation for Econ Cooperation and Development)	Chief of Programme	Research activities relating to effective modalities for concessional assistance flows, particularly to Africa, and continuous involvement in DAC (Development Assistance Committee) meetings.
1981 - 1984	United Nations, New York	Unit for Special Economic Assistance Programmes, Office of Under-Sec-Gen for Political Questions	Senior Officer	Economic assessment missions to countries subject to General Assembly resolutions calling for special international economic assistance (including Mozambique, Zambia, Zimbabwe, Botswana, Lesotho, Djibouti, Sierra Leone, and Tonga).
1977 – 1981	United Nations, New York	United Nations Centre on Transnational Corporations	Deputy Head of Advisory Services	Principally concerned with organising advice to developing countries on relations with transnational corporations (investment laws, contact negotiations, economic and legal analysis, good governance).
1975 – 1977	Maputo	UNDP Mozambique	Deputy Resident Representative	Setting up first programmes of cooperation after independence, and Mozambique’s relations with UN
1972 – 1975	Lusaka	UNDP Zambia	Assistant Resident Representative	In 1973 I acted as liaison between UN and Zambian Govt following closure of border with Rhodesia